ALLIED HEALTH PREPARATION CERTIFICATE +

Designed for students beginning at CCV and planning to transfer into other institutions' allied health programs, this certificate is excellent preparation for degree programs such as dental hygiene, respiratory therapy and nursing. Students who complete the Allied Health Preparation certificate can apply those courses to CCV's Health Science (A.S.) program.

Allied health program students are required by the State of Vermont to provide documentation of immunizations.

Required courses are listed in the order in which we recommend you take them.
